

Why cant you at the FCC use your funding for what the people need and want and are willing to pay for insted of a small special interest group that hate compitition.Less goverment is good goverment.